Accordingly the Examiner invited the Applicant to resubmit amended claims clarifying that distinction.

In accordance with the Interview request to submit amended claims, relevant claims in the present application have been so amended. Additionally, a number of informalities were detected in the claims, and the Applicant has taking the opportunity to correct those spelling was unable to point out these informalities.

Office Action

The Office Action and its claim rejections were addressed. As Van Ryzin appears to not teach the subject matter of the rejected claims, the claim rejections are therefore rendered moot.
